NEGROES HOT AFTER BANKS

Wanted to Organize a Party to Lynch the Murderer.

ONLY LACKED A LEADER

Clarence Payne, Well Known Young White Citizen, Nearly Another Victim.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ARVONIA, VA., June 28.—County officials and others at Buckingham Court-house have been telephoning here persistently since yesterday trying to determine whether or not a mob is forming here for the purpose of lynching the young negro John Henry Banks, who murdered the negro John Brown at Johnson's Station on Saturday, and who is now lodged in the Buckingham jail. Somehow the impression has gotten out that the negroes in and about this place have organized to lynch Banks. The county officials, in order to insure his safety, have been endeavoring to learn the exact status of the case.

WANTED A LEADER.
On Saturday there was along talk of organizing a lynching party here among the negroes. Some of them seemed anxious to undertake the hazardous business, but they lacked a leader. It is learned that a number of negroes approached one or more prominent white men of this town, with the urgent request that they act as leader in the party to deal in a summary manner with Banks, who was then at Johnson's Station. Meeting with no success in getting a white leader, the negroes abandoned their project.

"Phone messages have just come summoning Dr. Glover, who is one of the most prominent physicians of this section, to attend the young colored man, Eldridge, who was shot in the head and face by Banks soon after he murdered old "Uncle" John Brown. It is thought, from this, that the wounds of Eldridge must be serious."

CLOSE CALL.

More details of the bad affair have been furnished to-day. It seems that Mr. Clarence Payne, a well known young white citizen, while attempting to arrest the desperado, Banks, came within a couple of inches of having his head shot off. Banks saw Payne approaching toward the window, and he endeavored to give him a "piece" of his mind. Payne told him that what he did not give any man; whereupon Banks fired just as Payne dodged, drilling a hole with a lead bullet through Payne's hat. It was shortly after this that Banks went upstairs in his father-in-law's house and went to sleep.

It is the general impression here that Banks will hang without any possible show of clemency, as the crime was one of the most bloody and dastardly ever known in this section.

Old John Brown, the victim of the desperado's fury, was buried yesterday by his "society," the "Royal Order of Joseph." Members of this society are especially bitter against Banks.

CHESTERFIELD COURT.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHESTERFIELD, VA., June 28.—Mr. A. Phaup, of Skunkquarter, will tender his resignation this week as supervisor for Clover Hill magisterial district and qualify as county superintendent of roads. Mr. Phaup, a well known young white citizen, while attempting to arrest the desperado, Banks, came within a couple of inches of having his head shot off. Banks saw Payne approaching toward the window, and he endeavored to give him a "piece" of his mind. Payne told him that what he did not give any man; whereupon Banks fired just as Payne dodged, drilling a hole with a lead bullet through Payne's hat. It was shortly after this that Banks went upstairs in his father-in-law's house and went to sleep.

Digestion isn't a mere chemical process alone.
The walls of the stomach move against one another and grind, or "churn," the food.
"FORCE" is already half digested and well milled. It gives these over-tried twentieth-century stomachs of ours a fair show.

Summary

There is a certain crisp, appetizing, delicate taste to the flakes of "FORCE" which creates a sensation you long to repeat.
That delicious taste is a sure sign that you are eating something which is going to do you good.

YARRELL SPEAKS IN PETERSBURG

Is Pledged the Support of Prominent Politicians of That City.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PETERSBURG, VA., June 28.—Judge L. D. Yarrell, of Greensville, candidate for Congress from this district, spoke for an hour to-night at an enthusiastic audience that filled the Council chamber, despite the storm that arose about 8 o'clock. He read his challenge to Mr. Southall to meet him in Petersburg and throughout the district and the latter's reply. He then Greenlee county against Amelia county, which, he said, had always given Republican majorities except when Mr. Southall was a candidate for Congress two years ago.

Judge Yarrell favors legislation to place a sufficient import tax on peanuts to prevent foreign nuts raised by cheap labor from coming to this country in competition with the nuts raised here. He was vigorous in his criticism of what he termed Congressman Southall's inaction during his term in Congress, and scored his opponent along with well received, and at the close many prominent politicians went forward and pledged their support.

Mr. George Mason, city attorney, and chairman of the City Democratic Committee, introduced Judge Yarrell.
